BAY VALLEY MEDICAL GROUP

WELCOMES THREE NEW PHYSICIANS TO HAYWARD OFFICE

Expansion brings greater access and choice for patients

HAYWARD, CA – Bay Valley Medical Group announced today that three new doctors have joined the practice's Hayward office. With the addition of these new physicians, patients now have a wider choice of primary care physicians available. The new physicians are Jaya Karnani, M.D., family medicine, Pandora Lee, M.D., internal medicine, and Razia A. Rangwala, M.D., family medicine.

Dr. Karnani practices family medicine and comes with prior experience in private practice in Sacramento. She attended medical school at Kasturba Medical College in India and completed her residency at the Fort Wayne Medical Education Program in Indiana. Dr. Karnani is board certified by the American Board of Family Medicine and is fluent in Hindi.

Dr. Lee is an internist with many years of experience in both multi-specialty medical groups and as a hospitalist. She attended medical school at Tulane University, School of Medicine and completed her residency at the Alton Ochsner Medical Foundation, both located in New Orleans, Louisiana. Dr. Lee is board certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine. She speaks Cantonese and Spanish.

Dr. Rangwala is a family medicine physician. She attended medical school at Ravindra Nath Tagore Medical College, University of Rajasthan in India. She completed a master of surgery in obstetrics/gynecology and practiced in India. Upon relocation to the United States, she completed a family medicine residency at San Joaquin General Hospital in French Camp, California and is board certified by the American Board of Family Medicine. Dr. Rangwala speaks Hindi, Urdu, Punjabi and Gujarati.

"The addition of these doctors to the Hayward internal and family medicine department will enable us to provide great care to our many patients throughout the East Bay area," said administrator Shelley Horwitz. "They all have proven themselves as valuable members of the team, and will continue to contribute to Bay Valley's mission of providing compassionate care and service to our patients."

Bay Valley Medical Group is one of the most established multi-specialty group practices in the Bay Area having served Alameda and Contra Costa Counties since 1954. It is one of only a few in northern California that remains physician owned and governed. Over the past decade, Bay Valley Medical Group has grown with four clinic sites in Hayward, Castro Valley, Danville and Pleasanton as well as with 350 affiliate physician offices representing a broad array of specialties.
